

Have you ever...

- ✓ Had the embarrassment and expense of a check or automatic payment returned NSF?
- ✓ Had a check denied at checkout?
- ✓ Forgotten to record a deposit? A purchase? A withdrawal?
- ✓ Had to “guess” at what transactions a joint owner has made?

WE CANNOT PROMISE OR GUARANTEE THESE THINGS WILL NEVER HAPPEN.

You deserve consideration...

Rather than automatically returning unpaid all insufficient funds items that you may have, we will consider, without obligation on our part, payment of your reasonable overdrafts up to your assigned Courtesy Pay Limit.

You do not have to apply for or sign any additional documents for this service for checks, ACH or recurring debit transactions. It is already a part of your Draft/Checking Account Agreement with us. If you want us to consider paying ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions that would overdraw your account, we need your affirmative consent to do so.

If you want us to authorize and pay overdrafts on your ATM and everyday debit card transactions, call (734) 455-9200.

Courtesy Pay costs you nothing unless you use it. “Use” means you initiate insufficient funds transactions.

If you do use Courtesy Pay, you will be subject to our customary fees set out in our Fee Schedule and Courtesy Pay Policy.

Courtesy Pay Service Policy (A Discretionary Overdraft Service)

Michigan Educational Credit Union (“we, us or our”) offers the Courtesy Pay Service. If your account qualifies for Courtesy Pay, we will consider, without obligation on our part, paying items for which your account has insufficient or unavailable funds, instead of automatically returning those items unpaid. This document explains how Courtesy Pay operates.

Transactions that May Qualify for Courtesy Pay

An overdraft occurs when you do not have enough money in your account to cover a transaction. Although there are many reasons why your account might become overdrawn, most overdrafts result from the following:

- You write a check, swipe your debit card or initiate an electronic funds transfer in an amount that exceeds the amount of funds available in your account;
- You deposit a check or other item into your account and the item is returned unpaid, which causes a negative balance in your account once your balance is reduced by the amount of the returned check;
- You have inadequate funds in your account when we assess a fee or service charge; or
- You initiate a transaction before funds deposited into your account are “available” or “finally paid” according to our Funds Availability Policy. For example, if you deposit a check into your account, the proceeds of that check may not be available to you for up to five days after you deposit the check. If you do not have sufficient funds in your account – independent of the check – to cover the transaction, you will incur an overdraft.

The Courtesy Pay Service applies to a variety of transactions, including checks and other transactions made using your Draft/Checking account number, automatic bill payments, ATM transactions and everyday debit card transactions; however, we will not include ATM and everyday debit card transactions within our Courtesy Pay Service without first receiving your affirmative consent to do so. Without your affirmative consent, ATM and everyday debit card transactions generally will be not be paid under Courtesy Pay.

Participation in Courtesy Pay is not mandatory. You may opt-out of the service at any time by notifying one of our service representatives. Furthermore, you may revoke your affirmative consent to have ATM and everyday debit card transactions considered for payment under Courtesy Pay without removing other items from the service. Simply inform us of your preference.

As noted above, we retain full discretion to decline to pay any item under the Courtesy Pay Program. This means we can refuse to pay any overdraft for any reason. Even if we decide to pay an overdraft item, absent an agreement to the contrary, such payment does not create any duty to pay future overdrafts. If we do not authorize and pay an overdraft, your transaction will be declined and we may assess NSF fees on your account in accordance with your account agreement and the Fee Schedule in effect at the time of the overdraft.

Fees

For each overdraft we pay, we will charge the standard per item overdraft fee set forth in our Fee Schedule (currently $30). We will notify you by mail if we pay or return any insufficient or unavailable funds items on your account; however, we have no obligation to notify you before we pay or return any item. The amount of any overdrafts, including our fees, are due and payable immediately or on demand.

Accounts Eligible for Courtesy Pay

Courtesy Pay is a discretionary service and is generally limited to an $800 overdraft (negative) balance for eligible checking accounts. Please note that per item overdraft fees count toward your Courtesy Pay Limit. We may in our sole discretion limit the number of accounts eligible for Courtesy Pay to one account per household or per taxpayer identification number. Further, Courtesy Pay is usually extended only to accounts in good standing. An account in good standing exhibits, but is not limited to, the following characteristics:

- The account has been open for at least thirty (30) days;
- The account has deposits totaling at least $400 or more within each thirty (30) day period;
- The account demonstrates consistent deposit activity;
- The account owner is current on all loan obligations with us; and
- The account is not subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, such as bankruptcy or tax lien.

We offer other overdraft protection services in addition to Courtesy Pay. These include an overdraft line of credit and overdraft protection linked to another account of yours with us, such as a savings account. If you apply and are approved for these optional services, you may save money on the total fees you pay us for overdraft protection services.

Overdrafts should not be used to pay ordinary or routine expenses and you should not rely on overdrafts as a means to cover these expenses. If at any time you feel you need help with your financial obligations, please contact one of our service representatives at your local branch office.
